

2025 Annual Event: Pivoting 4 Our Future

Speaker Bio: Cherie Sorokin

Our opening speaker is Cherie Sorokin, AAUW Board Chair. Cherie is an attorney who spent much of her career at the Bank of America, where she was executive vice president and corporate secretary. She is a published author on corporate governance and now consults on governance matters with Veaco Group. She is the recent past-president of Marin Villages, a nonprofit that helps older adults remain active, connected, and independent in their homes. At AAUW, she has held leadership positions at the branch and national level, including serving on the national board since 2017. She is a member of the Marin Branch and California Online Branch.
